

10 Reasons why Home Professionals choose Progress Lighting:

1. Variety

Progress Lighting offers variety, in fact the most comprehensive residential lighting portfolio with nearly 5,000 products for every style, application and budget, including interior, exterior, landscaping and grounds lighting.

2. Quality

Backed with a guaranteed quality assurance, Progress Lighting creates high-performance fixtures, and all of Progress Lighting's fixtures are UL or CSA listed.

3. Service

With a strong distribution network, Progress Lighting employs direct factory, local-based account managers that provide service across the United States and Canada.

4. Support

With marketing materials, displays and programs, Progress Lighting arms its customers with the resources needed to attract and assist consumers.

5. Convenience

Progress Lighting is the leading single-source supplier offering convenient lighting solutions – from an individual home to an entire community.

6. Experience

With the financial strength, stability and knowledge of a company over 100 years, Progress Lighting possesses experience, allowing it to have the highest builder satisfaction levels in the industry.

7. Value

The award-winning Progress Lighting company consistently designs, develops and delivers innovative products and services that meet the needs, wishes and values of the markets it serves.

8. Dedication

With a passion for beauty, value and selection, Progress Lighting is dedicated to elevating the quality of life through lighting, committed to the end-users of its products.

9. Respect

Working hard to earn the respect of its customers, each customer, regardless of how big or small, has the respect of Progress Lighting, because Progress Lighting wouldn't exist without you.

10. Reputation

Not only is Progress Lighting the most recognized and preferred residential lighting manufacturer of the U. S. Professional trade, it has a proven "in-demand" reputation with consumers.

